

Grumen-Vet® Bolus

Cobalt sulphate, Dried ferrous sulphate, Vit. B<sub>1</sub>, Vit. B<sub>12</sub>, Choline bitartrate

Presentation:

Each bolus contains -

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Cobalt sulphate Ph.Gr.                     | 51.546 mg  |
| Dried ferrous sulphate BP                  | 100.000 mg |
| Thiamine nitrate BP (Vit. B <sub>1</sub> ) | 25.000 mg  |
| Cyanocobalamin BP (Vit. B <sub>12</sub> )  | 20.000 mcg |
| Choline bitartrate USP                     | 9.100 mg   |

Indication:

Grumen-Vet® Bolus is indicated as a supportive therapy of ruminant animal for simple indigestion, impaction etc.

Benefits:

- Ensures faster recovery of indigestion, anorexia, inappetence, impaction etc of ruminant animals and maintain normal affinity of taking food.
- Effective as a supportive treatment of different infectious diseases with prescribed antibiotics where anorexia exists as a symptom.
- Ensures quicker fattening of ruminant animals when given with balanced diet after anthelmintic treatment.

Dosage & Administration:

Cattle & buffaloes: Usually 2-3 bolus per day is adequate for 2-3 days. Sometimes animals of heavy weight may require a higher dosage of 04 bolus per day.

Or as prescribed by the registered veterinary doctor.

Contraindication:

Grumen-Vet® Bolus should not be used in animals hypersensitive to any of the active ingredients.

Use in Pregnancy & Lactation:

Safe drug for use during pregnancy and lactation.

Adverse effects:

There is no major side effect of this drug while used in recommended dosage.

Storage:

Store below 25° C in a cool & dry place. Protect from light. Keep out of reach of children.

Drug Interaction:

Thiamine hydrochloride is incompatible with oxidizing and reducing substances, iodides, carbonates. Destruction of thiamine hydrochloride in solution is accelerated by copper ions. Thiamine is incompatible with benzyl penicillin.

Packaging Quantity:

15X4's bolus in strip pack.